You might be eligible for SNAP benefits!

Low-income college students who meet certain eligibility rules might be eligible for SNAP to help buy groceries - up to $194 per month for one person! Four-year college students (and two-year private college students) may be eligible if any one of these apply:

- Work, on average, at least 20 hours/week
- Have a medical barrier to employment
- Have Work Study for any number of hours/week
- Are enrolled less than half time
- Are under age 18 or over age 50
- Have a child under 12

Students with meal plans covering 1/2 of their meals are not eligible for SNAP. Students who live with their parents and are under 22 must apply for SNAP with their parents. There are other rules students must meet to be eligible. To apply, call the SNAP hotline (215-430-0556) or visit www.compass.state.pa.us.
