

Joseph Michaels, ABD (CJ), M.A.

Administrative Experience

Director: Bucks County Sex Offender Program, 1994-96.

Treatment Director, Genesis II, Philadelphia, 1990-1991.

Vice-President of Treatment Services, Program Planning and Evaluation, The Bridge, a.k.a. The Therapeutic Center at Fox Chase. 1987-1989. Significant grant writing responsibilities. Funded primarily through a federal grant, additional programming supported through local and private grants.

Treatment Director, The Bridge, a.k.a. The Therapeutic Center at Fox Chase. 1978-1987.

Director, Out-Patient Services, The Bridge, a.k.a. The Therapeutic Center at Fox Chase, 1975-78.

Correctional Rehabilitation Consultant

Bucks County Prison: Facilitate Drug/Alcohol Chronic Relapse Groups, Dual-Diagnoses Groups, Female groups, (1989 – 2002). Basic Addictions, Relapse Prevention, Re-Entry groups, (2002- 2008). Individual sessions, (1989 – 2008).

Bucks County Community Corrections Center: Instructor in Intensive Drug Program – tracts: emotional management and relapse prevention, (1990 – 2002). Emotional Management groups (2002 – 2008).

Bucks County Adult Probation/Parole: Provide community-based treatment for sex offenders under probation/parole stipulation, (1992 – present).

Pa. State Board of Parole: Provide community-based treatment for sex-offenders under state parole supervision, (1992 – 2000).

Pa. State Association of Chiefs of Probation/Parole: Keynote Speaker, trainer for 1998 Annual Convention – Issues regarding Unified Court System, implications for county probation/parole.

Research:

Doctoral research: Principle investigator researching the issue of “Intrusiveness in probation sentences.” The research is qualitative and investigates the effect of multiple conditions and requirements of those conditions on probation failure.

Research assistant: As part of a research team under the direction of Wayne Welsh, Ph.D. took part in evaluational and process studies of drug and alcohol treatment programs in Pennsylvania State Prisons. Project was funded by Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency as part of a joint research agreement between Temple University and the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections, 1999.

Research assistant: As part of a research team under the direction Kay Harris, Chair of the Department of Criminal Justice, Temple University, worked within the guidelines of a cooperative agreement between Temple University and the National Institute of Corrections to develop a descriptive cataloging of gender-specific community corrections programs in the United States.

Journalism/Writing Experience

2006: Consultant Grant Writer for New Jersey Department of Education, Office for Safe and Drug Free Schools. Developed grant application for Federal funded training grant.

1990: Consultant Grant Writer for Bucks County Council on Drug Abuse for Federal Grant from National Institute of Drug Abuse.

1988-2003: Writer/editor (part time) of Sports Staff of the Bucks County Courier Times.

Adjunct Professor: Sociology/Criminal Justice

Arcadia University, Glenside, Pa. I developed the proposal that resulted in the creation of the Criminal Justice minor Courses taught: Crime and Punishment; Criminal Minds, Criminal Types, Corrections/Prisons, Inside-Out (at the Philadelphia Detention Center, House of Correction). Correctional Rehabilitation (2004-Present)

LaSalle University, Philadelphia, Pa.: Courses taught: Introduction to Criminal Justice, Crime and Its Causes, Research Methods, the Court and Its Functions, Sex Crimes and an Independent Study on Management in Criminal Justice Agencies. (2002-2005)

Gwynedd-Mercy College, Lower Gwynedd, Montgomery County, Pa.: Courses taught: Introduction to Criminal Justice, Crime and Delinquency, Psychology in Criminal Justice. (1998-2002).

Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa: Courses taught: Introduction to Criminal Justice, Introduction to Corrections, Prisons in America, Community Corrections. (1997-2002).

Education

ABD Criminal Justice, Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa.

M.A. Corporate and Political Communications, Fairfield University, Fairfield Connecticut.

B.A. Philosophy, Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

Personal

Married, two children.

Private Pilot's License