THE PRESIDENT’S REPORT

By Jerry M. Greiner, President

UP AND COMING, OFF AND RUNNING

For the second year in a row, Arcadia University was on the short list of universities identified as on the cutting edge in academic innovation.

_U.S. News & World Report_ asked academic leaders to identify institutions that are making the most promising and innovative changes in the areas of academics, faculty and student life. Arcadia was one of only five regional universities in the North named to the Top Up-and-Coming Schools list in 2010, repeating an honor we earned in 2009.

After introducing a ground-breaking new Undergraduate Curriculum that includes a Global Connections Experience for all of our students, we pioneered nearly a dozen Majors Abroad Programs and were one of the first universities to introduce the three-year undergraduate degree for high-ability students in 2010. We also continue to gain recognition for our graduate programs, with our Physical Therapy program ranked seventh in the nation by _U.S. News_ and our Physician Assistant and Genetic Counseling programs among the largest and top-scoring in the nation.

As we restructured into three colleges and a school last fall, we introduced the first college in the United States dedicated to international education and study abroad to be fully integrated into the academic and administrative core of a university.

Arcadia is distinct in that all of our students—both graduate and undergraduate—engage in integrative, real-world learning opportunities such as internships, evidence-based research, service learning, interdisciplinary study, problem-based learning, and co-curricular learning opportunities that expand beyond the traditional classroom. With the world as their classroom, Arcadia students are preparing to lead in a changing global society.

AN OPPORTUNITY NOT WASTED

Ten years ago, Beaver College announced that it would become Arcadia University. I know that the change was bittersweet for many alumni, who treasure their memories of Beaver. But Arcadia is building solidly upon the Beaver College foundation and a proud history that spans 157 years.

The most enduring elements of Arcadia’s Promise to students is the story we hear repeated so often by alumni—mentoring relationships with faculty and staff that changed the course of their lives and prepared them for the real world. Outstanding teaching and curricular innovation, with an emphasis on student-faculty engagement, continues to be among the distinguishing characteristics of an Arcadia education.

It is a testament to the legacy of Beaver that Arcadia set some very ambitious goals for itself. The entire community—alumni, students, faculty, staff and trustees—were deeply involved in the planning process to determine the future course of this institution. As a result, in 2003 Arcadia announced 12 goals that it hoped to accomplish by 2013. I am pleased to report that these goals have been largely met by 2010, and the University is now looking toward where we want to be by 2020.

With the Academic Affairs strategic planning process in 2009-10, the University affirmed its commitment to encourage and support research, scholarship and creative activities. We are dedicated to assessing our educational programs on a continuous basis to ensure that the highest quality learning occurs in and out of our classrooms.

Our steady enrollment growth has provided us with the resources to continue our academic enhancements. Year after year we have seen increased applications, which has allowed us to increase our selectivity while still serving our core mission.

It is particularly poignant that our growth so far has carried us through these difficult economic times. Arcadia has been able to continue to hire more full-time faculty in each of the past several years, and we are committed to increasing our faculty ranks.

Thanks to the support of all of you whose names appear on the following pages of this report, we are in the final—but most challenging—stretch to meet our $23.5 million goal for At Home & In the World—The Campaign for Arcadia University.

The Campaign has enabled us to begin construction on the University Commons, a new student center that has long been needed on our campus, and we await its opening in the fall of 2011.

The successful bond issue for the Commons in the spring of 2010, along with a major grant from the National Science Foundation, enabled us to begin renovating Boyer Hall and its laboratories, creating additional faculty offices and classrooms in Boyer and in several other buildings. We also opened a new field for our soccer and lacrosse teams.

All of these accomplishments propel us to a well-earned leadership position in international education and globalization.
A FUTURE FILLED WITH PROMISE
The challenge before Arcadia now is how will we meet and exceed the next set of expectations that we as a community set for ourselves, goals that will carry us through the next decade to 2020.

The “top up-and-coming” moniker certainly carries with it the sentiment that our peers believe we are well on the way to becoming a truly distinctive university. For the past six years, we have operated under the umbrella of Five Strategic Directions as we channeled our efforts into these highly focused initiatives. From our Academic Affairs Strategic Plan, we have the entrepreneurial map that should guide us to new levels of academic excellence in the next five years. This year we will check the compass and plan our next strategic journey together, and then we are off and running toward an exciting future.

The essential part of our journey through the next decade is that all of us in the Arcadia community—alumni, students, faculty, staff and trustees—will be engaged in the scholarship and service that propels us forward. Our students, faculty, staff and alumni will actively participate in and make meaningful contributions to the academic, social and civic life on campus, in the region, and around the world.
By Nick Costa, Vice President for University Advancement

Last year, Arcadia University made history with an eight-day celebration to honor the people who make it possible for our students to contribute to the world in notable ways and to launch At Home & In the World—The Campaign for Arcadia University.

These events celebrated a community with a common vision—students with opportunities to learn and grow and one day join our distinguished alumni who contribute to the world and become leaders in their fields. Students, faculty, trustees, alumni, donors and other friends came together for a diversity of educational and social events, from the Empty Bowl Dinner, a student-led fundraiser to fight hunger and homelessness, to the Stacy Anne Vitetta Memorial Lecture, honoring scholarly research by a distinguished faculty member.

The synergy and power of people united behind a common vision were seen in the Campaign’s fundraising, as well. Despite a challenging economy, more than $4.4 million in gifts and pledges during the year brought the Campaign to more than $21 million, with just $2.2 million yet to be raised to meet our goal. Yet the importance of these gifts goes well beyond the funds raised. In April, we broke ground on the long-awaited University Commons, a social and educational gathering place (or “Chat”) for new generations of students. With 25 new named and endowed scholarships now established, Arcadia continues to keep its doors open to the brightest and most deserving students.

The challenging economy did impact some segments of the Campaign as government, foundation and corporate grants were cut back or eliminated, reducing the funding received. Yet we are encouraged that all of these supporters expressed their intention to renew their support when the economy improves.

For those who have yet to contribute to the Campaign, we invite you to join us and gain the satisfaction and pride in knowing that your gift will improve student life and academic excellence at Arcadia.

M. Susan Savage ’74, keynote speaker at the Campaign Gala, acknowledged the impact her education had on her life and the Campaign’s potential. “It is hard to fathom that 39 years ago at the tender age of 18, I left Tulsa, Okla., bound for Glenside, Pa.—sight unseen. I found Arcadia University to be an environment where the faculty and staff harnessed and directed the idealism, energy, and creativity of its students.… When the Campaign is successfully completed, Arcadia will be exceptionally positioned to prepare young women and young men to travel along their individual paths of exploration as they fulfill their potential and dreams and seek to improve the world in which they live through the continued pursuit of knowledge…knowledge that will define and shape their success as human beings.”

This honor roll recognizes those who made gifts and pledges to At Home & In the World—The Campaign for Arcadia University from July 1, 2007, through June 30, 2010. With your gifts, you allow our students “to fulfill their potential and dreams.” You are important and essential. The students—and the entire University community—thank you.

25 New Scholarships Created

Through the generous support of Members of the Class of 1968, student Kara Bloom was able to come to Arcadia with support from the Class of 1968 Endowed Scholarship. During the Campaign thus far, more than 25 new named and endowed scholarships were created, with seven additional alumni adding to previously established scholarship funds.
University Commons Ground-breaking

Arcadia leaders donned hard hats and hundreds of students took a few minutes out from their Spring Fling celebration to join in the ceremonial ground-breaking for the new University Commons on April 23. The student center will be completed in Fall 2011.

Reunion classes have discovered ways to be recognized permanently on campus. The Class of 1960 set an ambitious $100,000 goal to name the bridge connecting the campus green to the second floor of the University Commons, improving accessibility to the building for all, including students, faculty and visitors with disabilities.

The President’s Circle is our most distinguished group of contributors supporting the University, making it possible to provide an exceptional education that goes well beyond what would be offered by tuition alone. President’s Circle members are invited to exclusive events throughout the year and are informed about student life on campus with regular updates from the President. During 2009–10, President’s Circle members were honored at the Campaign Kick-off at the Elkins Estate, received special invitations to a champagne reception at the Sunderman Concert, a Cast Party following a family theater presentation, the ground-breaking ceremony for the University Commons, and the annual reception at Senior Art Thesis.

This honor roll recognizes President’s Circle members who made cash contributions from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010, as well as new pledge commitments made during this period.

ANNUAL REPORT | 29  SPECIAL GIVING – PRESIDENT’S CIRCLE
WAYS TO GIVE

Stock that has appreciated in value and is owned more than a year offers the tax benefit of avoiding capital gains tax on the appreciation and may qualify for an income tax charitable deduction.

A donor-advised fund allows you to recommend annual grants to benefit Arcadia. Many fund administrators allow you to sign a letter of intent expressing your interest in supporting the University for more than one year. Payments are fixed and can be deposited directly to your checking account. A minimum gift of $10,000 is required, and annuitant(s) must be age 60 or older.

A charitable gift annuity allows you to make a gift that pays income for life to one or two individuals. Retirement plan, or life insurance policy; established a life membership is available to individuals who have named Arcadia University as a beneficiary of a charitable bequest, retirement plan, or life insurance policy; established a life income gift, such as a charitable gift annuity or trust; or provided another planned gift to benefit the University. Covenant Society members are honored each year at an event hosted by the President and receive special updates during the year.

This honor roll recognizes those who have informed the University of their planned gifts through June 2010.

SPECIAL GIVING – COVENANT SOCIETY

WAYS TO GIVE

A charitable bequest allows you to continue your support of Arcadia and benefit generations of students to come through an unrestricted gift or by establishing a named endowment for scholarships and other purposes.

A charitable remainder trust can be established to meet specific income and investment needs (minimum gift of $100,000 required) for a term of years (up to 20) for up to two individuals for their lifetimes and can be funded with cash or appreciated securities.

A gift of a life insurance policy with a cash value, real estate and other assets may be given to the university. You also may make a gift of a residence and continue to live in it.

LIFETIME GIVING SOCIETIES

Arcadia University has established three societies to recognize donors who have demonstrated leadership through their lifetime giving, including outright gifts, pledges and planned gift intentions for all restricted and unrestricted purposes. The societies are named for three of our institution’s most distinguished presidents: the Reverend Dr. Raymon M. Kistler (President, 1940–60), who worked tirelessly to bring stability through the financial turmoil of World War II; Dr. Edward D. Gates (President, 1960–82), who led the consolidation on the Glenside campus; Dr. Bette E. Landman (President, 1985–2004), whose vision and plan brought the College to University status. Giving levels reflect gifts made through June 30, 2010.

Gifts to the Annual Fund enhance the education available to today’s students and raise our standing as one of the finest Universities in the North.

The Annual Fund enables the University to provide scholarships, introduce new academic programs, improve student life, purchase resources for the library, and restore historic buildings on campus. The Annual Fund allows Arcadia to do more for every student. The Alumni Fund supports the Beaver College of Undergraduate Studies, and the Graduate Alumni Fund supports the College of Graduate Studies.

Alumni are recognized by class year. Knight Society members, recognized with a +, are loyal contributors who have given two or more consecutive years. Individuals who give $1,000 or more annually also are listed in the President’s Circle.

This honor roll recognizes those who made cash gifts and matching gifts received between July 1, 2009, and June 30, 2010.

Every day, for every student, the Annual Fund has an impact on the quality of education for our students. Following is just a sampling of ways giving to the Annual Fund improves student learning and life throughout the University.

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING

After interviewing students on changing needs, the library recently redesigned space to foster use of technology and collaboration in student learning. Now one of the most active locations in the Landman Library, the flexible furniture allows students to move seating, desks, and whiteboards around for small group use. In addition, the close proximity to work stations with high-end software makes it possible for students to work together more effectively.

On Stage

When Acting major Paige Hoke ’10 wrote The Princess Rescuers for a class assignment, she never expected it to go onstage. With the guidance of her professors and peers, however, her play was added to Arcadia’s 2009 fall theater lineup. Mark Wade, Director of Theater Arts, notes, “The Theater program is committed to doing new plays—it’s part of the learning process for actors.”
CREATIVE PARTNERSHIPS
Arcadia has partnered with the National Constitution Center for the center’s Summer Teacher Institutes over the last three summers. Educators spend a week learning history and government in the heart of historic Philadelphia. The Institutes offer educators a unique opportunity to collaborate with scholars, leading experts and colleagues from across the country to gain content knowledge on a variety of topics and new methods to educate students. The Annual Fund affords Arcadia the opportunity to develop the program, offering three graduate credits for students who successfully complete an institute.

FACILITIES
The iconic Grey Towers Castle is a well-known focal point for the Arcadia campus. For many years, plain white industrial metal box lights provided the lighting on the front portico. A faint outline on the wooden ceiling gave evidence of the original fixture, but no documentation was found to identify it. Last spring, the Society for Castle Restoration raised funds, and Arcadia commissioned a Ukrainian craftsman to match the fixtures at Murphy Hall, returning a bit of the original splendor of the building and leaving their own legacy on the national landmark.

EDUCATION
Arcadia hosted 10 students from the Benjamin Banneker Mathematics Association for instruction over a two-week period. Funded through Arcadia’s Office of Enrollment Management, the goal of the summer program was to keep motivated, accomplished, underrepresented minority students on the cutting edge of 21st century technological advancements in mathematics.

INTEGRATED LEARNING
Costa Rica. Guatemala. Tanzania. Arcadia students have some special opportunities to learn more about the challenges faced by people living in other countries through these unique interdisciplinary courses offered in the spring semester. Each course includes a weeklong experience in the country, giving faculty and students firsthand knowledge of another culture.

HANDS-ON LEARNING
Art and Design seniors were paired with children from the neighborhoods of Philadelphia in the “This Is My Philly” program, working with them to write poems and design posters about their neighborhoods. The program began at a critical time in Philadelphia education. While the national average of adults lacking basic literacy skills hovers at 14.5 percent, the most recent number for Philadelphia is almost eight full points higher at 22 percent.

STUDENT RESEARCH
The Biology Department took more than a dozen students to the 21st annual Sigma Xi Student Research Symposium to present original research from their laboratory thesis projects. Ranging from “Evolution of insulator sequences in D. melanogaster and D. simulans related with differences in response to odorants” to “Resolving ordinal level issues within the brown algae (Phaeophyceae) using chloroplast and nuclear genes,” students gained valuable experience in their field.

Athletics
The Annual Fund not only supports academic excellence, but also makes it possible to enhance student life by hiring coaching staff for our sports teams as well as staff to assist with student clubs—and by maintaining top-notch facilities such as the Lenox Pool. As the Knights participate in the highly competitive Middle Atlantic Conference, students benefit from the support they need to be successful student-athletes.

KNIGHT SOCIETY

The Knight Society honors Arcadia undergraduate and graduate alumni who have consistently and loyally given gifts, of any size, to the University. This Society is a special way to encourage recent graduates to embark on a tradition of annual giving, and also is a wonderful opportunity to honor Arcadia’s most loyal alumni. In fiscal year 2010-11, members will include those donors who have made gifts for three consecutive years. An annual “Knight Out” reception is held during Alumni Homecoming at Fall Fest to honor all members of the Knight Society. In addition, members’ names have a special notation in this yearly Annual Report on Giving.

A PLAN TO GET ALUMNI INVOLVED WITH ARCADIA

In January of 2010, President Jerry Greiner appointed the President’s Task Force on Alumni Relations to develop a plan that would raise alumni participation to historic new levels.

The President’s Task Force was headed by Charles Lentz ’03M and Kimberly Sterner-Stein ’88. The President received the Task Force recommendations in the spring of 2010 and formed an Implementation Committee to put them into action, with an over-arching goal of substantially increasing alumni engagement with the University within five years.

An engaged alumnus stays informed about Arcadia, gets involved as a volunteer, attends a University event, gives a monetary gift of any amount—and shows pride in Arcadia.

THE ALUMNI SURVEY

Working with a consultant who provided strategic guidance, the President’s Task Force surveyed alumni perceptions of and feelings about the University and how those affect alumni participation and support. An online survey was conducted during March with a random sample of alumni from Classes 1955 to 2008.

Using this survey information and the Evaluation of Alumni Relations: A Report of Findings, prepared by eAdvancement, the Task Force conducted an intensive and thorough planning process that culminated in a list of recommendations for change.

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATIONS

The major recommendations focus on building a stronger student and young alumni program, strengthening and expanding affinity groups, and redesigning the Alumni Association to support a broader volunteer base.

Students—Build a system that instills school pride in undergraduate and graduate students, starting their first year on campus.

Young Alumni—Develop structures and programs that appeal to young adults and integrate them into the structures of the larger alumni body.

Alumni Units of Organization—
Strengthen and expand existing class, regional chapter and alumni special interest organizations as vehicles for increased engagement. Redesign the Alumni Association to increase its capacity to facilitate and support a broad base of alumni volunteer engagement.

Alumni Communication—Build upon the high esteem alumni have for Arcadia magazine by developing its role as an engagement agent.

Alumni Programs—Enhance alumni programming to increase its diversity by including more faculty to build a compelling intellectual component to alumni programming.

Alumni Enrollment Network—With the Enrollment Management Office, expand the existing network to recruit, train and monitor a larger alumni “labor force” working on behalf of Arcadia.

Careers—Expand the Career Development Committee of the Alumni Association and develop programming that will involve a wider range of alumni giving and seeking career guidance.

Senior Picnic at Blankley

Blankley Alumni House put out the welcome mat for seniors during their Senior Week before Commencement. More than 100 seniors from the Class of 2010 stopped by for refreshments, a chance to celebrate and to tour their new campus home as alumni. All who stopped by received a silver key chain from the Alumni Association applauding their transition from student to alumni and inviting their membership in the Association that serves as a lifelong engagement with the Arcadia family.
Alumni were invited to bring their recent art with them to Reunion, ready to display. Art students, who were enrolled in a course to train them how to install artwork, greeted alumni at the Art Gallery door and displayed their work on the spot. It was an exhibit that grew throughout the weekend, when the finished display of eclectic works became a temporary installation. The exhibit culminated in a Saturday afternoon reception celebrating alumni art.

More than 250 alumni and friends celebrated with their classmates and enjoyed seeing how the campus has grown and prospered since they last visited.

Other highlights included an update on construction and campus landscaping, a young alumni picnic, and an evening concert by Irish rock band Blackthorn. Congratulations also go to the Class of 1960 for winning Song Contest.

We are pleased to report that the total combined five-year Reunion gift from all Reunion Classes was $2,344,371.39.

THE 2010 REUNION AWARDS

50th Reunion Class Gift
Class of 1960—Extraordinary gifts, both large and small, reflect the generosity of this year’s 50-year class. Led by Betty Holton Weiss, Marianna Harder Peckmann, Barbara Steffa Clayton and supported by Lenore Berman Block, the class was challenged with a $100,000 goal for the opportunity to have the University Commons Bridge named in its honor. The class was awarded the Cornell Cup for the highest Reunion attendance, with 27 of their classmates returning to celebrate their 50-year Reunion.

The Class of 1950 celebrated its 60th Reunion with gifts and pledges surpassing $25,000 that allowed classmates to have an Athletic Office named for them in the new University Commons.

The Class of 1955 received two Reunion awards: the Ethlyn Selner Mack Bowl for the highest five-year participation rate and the Bette E. Landman Plate for the largest five-year combined gift of $520,502.09.

The 2010 Montgomery/Bucks Club Scholarship Gift is designated for the Laura Lind McKee Scholarship Fund in honor of Laura Lind McKee ’15 and supports student scholarships.

THE 2010 ALUMNI AWARDS

The Golden Disc Award for Meritorious Service to Arcadia University was presented to Margaret Wright Steele ’80, in recognition of her outstanding volunteer leadership service and outstanding contributions to the welfare of Arcadia University.

The Golden Disc Award for Distinguished Achievement was awarded to Lynn Kressel ’70 for her significant accomplishments and outstanding achievements in business and the professions, greatly enhancing the prestige of Arcadia University.

Getting Together: in Florida

The 17th annual Florida Reunions were held in February for nearly 100 alumni, snowbirds, and friends. Florida alumni enjoyed going down memory lane with a slide presentation that highlighted class yearbook pictures—Song Contest, May Day, field hockey and rifle team photos, card playing in The Chat, and the yellow school bus parked in front of the Jenkintown campus. They also had the opportunity to see the Campaign video and hear a firsthand report from President Greiner about campus happenings, new academic programs, and the new University Commons. Those who attended the Orlando gathering had the added pleasure of walking through the Harry P. Leu Gardens before their luncheon, and alumni who gathered in Delray Beach enjoyed strolling through the gardens before and after a luncheon at the Sundy House. Area coordinators hosted four venues: Sue Burnison Burrows ’53 in Naples, Marilyn Neuburger Blocklinger ’53 in Sarasota, Joanne Brayton Jacobs ’68 in Orlando, and Shirley Canning Scatcherd ’59 and Loli Jaeger Lindstrom ’59 in Delray Beach.
Receiving the Mary Louise Armstrong Wolf Awards in recognition of their consistent dedication and service to Arcadia University through Alumni Association committee work and special events and consistent giving to the Annual Fund were Anna Laura Neidert Thompson ’50, Elsa-Lu Greenblatt Berkowitz ’55, Barbara Steffa Clayton ’60 and Carol Toner Shane ’65.

Alumni earning the Class Officer Awards for demonstrating dedication and service to Arcadia University on behalf of their classes were Jessie Severe Robson ’40, Ruth Hill Thomson ’40, Jane Hellyer Vasile ’50, Jeanne Bertolet Steinruck ’50, Joan Christopher Aliotta ’55, Cheryl Hopkins Damico ’70, Georgia Crozier ’80, Jill Buchbinder ’90 and Tricia Kershner Luddecke ’00.

The Senior Golden Disc Award was awarded to Stephen A. Neafsey ’10, a member of the senior class who in the opinion of his classmates, faculty, administration, and the Alumni Association Awards and Honors Committee, exemplifies the highest standards of leadership in activities that enhance the quality of student life and promote the present and future welfare of the University.

The Alumni Leadership Award, selected by the Office of Alumni Relations, was awarded to Grace Wainwright ’10, a member of the senior class who exemplifies outstanding leadership qualities that promote pride and loyalty to the University and values the important link between students and alumni.

Special thanks and appreciation go to Arcadia University class officers—Presidents, Fund Agents, Editors and Reunion Chairs—for their active participation in the life of the University and faithful service on behalf of their classmates to stay connected and return to celebrate their Reunions. A note of appreciation goes to Rosemary Deniken Blankley ’57 for her dedicated service as National Chair of the Annual Fund.

MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

Our number one priority in the coming year is to encourage you to become actively involved with your alma mater. Would you consider being a career mentor? Hosting a chapter? Becoming a class officer? Serving on the Alumni Association Executive Board? Sitting on an advisory committee? Planning programs for young alumni? Hosting a faculty lecture? Organizing a soccer, field hockey or baseball game? Bragging about Arcadia University everywhere you go?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, please contact the Office of Alumni Relations at 215-572-2160 or alumni@arcadia.edu. We welcome your active participation in the life of the University.

THE ALUMNI FUND WALK OF PRIDE

Dedicated in 1997, Arcadia’s Alumni Fund Walk of Pride is a major pedestrian walkway located at the very center of campus and is a focal point for Reunion Week. It offers a unique opportunity to recognize loyal alumni support of $150 or more through engraved pavers placed in the walkway by class year.
