Arcadia University Style Guide

The Office of Marketing and Communications (MarCom) is charged with setting Arcadia’s editorial style and keeping publications consistent and brand-centered so that all offices and departments present a positive, unified image of the University. These style guidelines, while flexible, are to be adhered to whenever possible in Arcadia-branded or University communications to ensure consistency throughout printed, posted, and published materials.

If you have questions about or suggestions for the Arcadia University Style Guide, please contact news@arcadia.edu.

As a general style guide for communications, use the most recent edition of the Associated Press Stylebook and Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary. For points of style specific to the University, use this manual.

Note: Not all standards in the Associated Press Stylebook and the Arcadia University Style Guide are uniform—i.e., the series comma (placing a comma in the last of a series such as “Tom plays the guitar, saxophone, and piano.”), which is not used in AP Style but is followed in Arcadia’s Style Guide.

New additions to this edition:
- Center for antiRacist Scholarship, Advocacy, and Action (CASAA)
- Center for Teaching, Learning, and Mentoring (CTLM)
- Combatting Anti-Black Racism (CABR, formerly ABRI)
- Division of Student Success (DSS)
- Laura Minerva Korman Mirror Room
- Office of Access, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (OAEDI)
- Office of Gender- and Sexual-Based Violence Prevention
- Black Alumni Association of Arcadia University (BAAAU)
Abbreviations and Acronyms
Spell out term on first reference, placing acronym or abbreviation in parentheses. After first reference, acronym or abbreviation is sufficient.

Examples:
- Combating anti-Black racism (CABR)
- Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (JEDI)
- Office of Human Resources (HR)

Academic degrees
In general, spell out and use lowercase when writing bachelor’s degree, master’s degree, doctor’s degree, doctorate, or doctoral program. When abbreviating degrees, use the article ‘an’ in front of degrees with an initial vowel sound, such as “an MA” but “a Master of Arts in English.”
- He earned a bachelor’s degree in Art History.
- She earned a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry.
- They awarded 27 master’s and 130 bachelor’s degrees.
- He earned a Bachelor of Arts

* Do not use periods in between degree abbreviations; while both degrees with periods and without are acceptable, without periods is the preferred Arcadia style.
Academic Departments
Full department titles are capitalized. Lowercase the word “department” when it stands alone.

• She’s been with the Department of Physical Therapy for three years.
• She’s been with the department for three years.

Academic Fields of Study (Undergraduate and Graduate)
Academic subjects are capped when referring to subjects at Arcadia. Always capitalize Gender and Women’s Studies, Black Studies, Asian Studies, Chinese, English Literature, French, German, Japanese, Spanish, Latin American Studies, American Studies, regardless of institutional affiliation.

Address
Do not abbreviate “Road.”
Arcadia University
450 S. Easton Road
Glenside, PA 19038-3295

Adviser
Is acceptable, as is “advisor.”

Age
Do not mix numerals with spelled out numbers. Use numerals for all ages, even if less than 10: ages 12, 10, 9, and 5

All-Modes Ready
Arcadia’s university-wide planning to remain flexible and innovative in delivering a unique educational experience whether in person or in a hybrid or online format. Developed in spring 2020 as an immediate response to the disruption brought by COVID. Keep capitalized as a proper noun.

alma mater
Do not capitalize or italicize.
Alumni, Alumnae, Alumna, Alumnus
- Use “alumni” when referring collectively to graduates of Arcadia University or to only male graduates.
- Use “alumnae” when referring collectively to only female graduates of the University (i.e., during Arcadia’s earlier years).
- Use “alumnus” when referring to a singular male graduate.
- Use “alumna” when referring to a singular female graduate.
- When no gender is given, use “graduate” or “graduates.”

Alumni Association
Always capped when referring to Arcadia’s Alumni Association.

Apostrophe
Use before the year when abbreviating it: During the ’80s and ‘90s; Kevin Hagan ’00.

ARCADIA2025
The University’s adaptive strategy, approved by the Board of Trustees in February 2020, which provides a five-year plan for Arcadia.

Arcadia Abroad
The College of Global Studies at Arcadia University, which leads the University’s global centers and several study abroad programs.

Arcadia magazine
Title of Arcadia magazine is Arcadia. Do not capitalize or italicize “magazine.”

Athletics
Department of Athletics and Recreation.

Awards
When referencing an award, always refer to the full name of the award on first reference. Capitalize the word ‘Award’ only when it is part of the name of the award.
BAAAU
Black Alumni Association of Arcadia University.

Board of Trustees
Keep capitalized as a full term; capitalize “Board” and “Trustees” when referring to the University’s Board or Trustees.

Center for antiRacist Scholarship, Advocacy, and Action (CASAA)
Established in November 2021 as an interdisciplinary academic center that brings together individuals from the University, community, and wider world to (re)shape the thinking and mindset about racism across the globe with the intent to not only combat racism but also promote racial justice and equity.

Center for Teaching, Learning, and Mentoring (CTLM)
The Center for Teaching, Learning, and Mentoring (CTLM) supports Arcadia’s innovative pedagogies and adaptive strategies and works with academic units and departments in leading teaching, learning, and mentoring discussions and innovations on campus, shaping academic continuity processes and plans, and planning innovative teaching, learning, and mentoring initiatives.

College
When referring to Beaver College, capitalize College. When referring to the College of Arts and Sciences or College of Health Sciences, avoid using “the College.” Spell out or use acceptable abbreviation after first reference (CAS, CHS).

Combating Anti-Black Racism Initiatives (CABR)
A University-wide effort of more than 40 Initiatives launched in 2020 under President Ajay Nair.

Comma

Convocation
Capitalize when referring to Honors Convocation or Opening Convocation.

COVID
Use for COVID-19 and coronavirus. COVID and COVID-19 are appropriate for use, but keep capped (uppercase).
Credentials
When listing credentials of faculty members, use the following format:

- Dr. Manny Curotto, professor and chair of Chemistry and Physics, and Gabrielle DiEmma '19 and Shane Kalette '19 had their paper, “Classical and quantum simulations of a lithium ion solvated by a mixed Stockmayer cluster,” accepted for publication in Chemical Physics Letters and OA Mirrors.

Also acceptable: Manny Curotto, PhD, professor and chair of Chemistry and Physics.

Dates
Follow AP style. When a month is used with a specific date, abbreviate only Jan., Feb., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., and Dec. The variance is on formal or single date invitations, a calendar of upcoming events, advertising copy, and with event announcements, when all months should be spelled out. Within a sentence or in a dateline, the month is not spelled out.

Spell out when using a month alone or with a year.
When a phrase refers to a month, day, and year, set off the year with commas. Don’t abbreviate days of the week.

Division of Student Success
Within Academic Affairs, the Division of Student Success, founded in 2021, is composed of several offices working together to enhance the academic and developmental support, services, and experience of Arcadia students. The Division of Student Success includes: Undergraduate Success; Academic Development (including the Learning Resource Network, Disability Support Services, and the Writing Center); Act 101/Gateway to Success; the Office of Career Education; the Registrar’s Office; and Graduate Support.

Dr.
When possible, say the person’s full name, then a comma, and then the degree. After first reference, use Dr. and last name: Dr. Jo Ann Weiner, associate professor of English, taught a class in American literature.

Emeritus/Emerita
Use “Emeritus” when referring to a male, and “Emerita” when referring to females. Use “Emeriti” when referring to multiple individuals. Capitalize “Emeritus” in a formal title, in keeping with the general practice of academic institutions. Alone it should not be capped, unless it refers to a specific person.

Examples:
Professor Emeritus Norman Johnston
Esports
Varsity Athletics program introduced for fall 2019 academic year. Write as esports unless it begins a sentence, when it should be Esports.

Extracurricular
No hyphen, one word.

Facility names
Visit the University’s Campus Map for list and locations of facilities on campus.

First-year Student
To be used to refer to first-year students at Arcadia (use instead of “freshman” or “freshmen”).

Full time (adv.)
Do not hyphenate when used as an adverb: She works full time.

Full-time (adj.)
Hyphenate when used as a compound modifier: Only full-time faculty attended the meeting.

Grey Towers Castle
Initial capitals. Also capitalize “Castle” when referencing Grey Towers Castle.

Honorary degrees
Do not use “Dr.” before the name of an individual whose only doctorate is honorary.

JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion)
Established in 2019 to conduct a comprehensive review of Arcadia’s policies, practices, and campus climate to ensure each aligns with the University’s Vision and Lived Values.

Kuch Center
Use Kuch Athletic and Recreation Center on first reference (no “the” in front).
Kuch Center Alumni Gymnasium
When referring to the gym, the correct term is Alumni Gymnasium or Alumni Gym.

Latin Honors
Use lower case and italicize cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude.

Laura Minerva Korman Mirror Room
Previously known as the Grey Towers Castle Mirror Room; Dedicated in 2021 to alumna and former trustee, Laura Minerva Korman ’89, ’95M.

Learning Resource Network
The Learning Resource Network is part of the Office of Academic Development and provides academic support services free of charge to all Arcadia University undergraduate students.

Library
All references should read Landman Library. Capitalize “Library” when referencing “Landman Library.”

Majors
Capitalize when referring to a specific program at Arcadia University.

More than/over
“More than” and “over” can indicate greater numerical value, though “more than” is preferred.

MyArcadia
Arcadia’s internal communications platform for faculty and staff. One word with capital “A.”

Numbers
Spell out “one” through “nine” and “first” through “ninth.” Use numerals for 10 and over until a million; then use 1 million, 9 million, etc. If a numeral begins a sentence, always spell out, except when referring to a calendar year.
Office of Access, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (OAEDI)
The Mission of the Office of Access, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion is to provide leadership in creating equitable and inclusive learning and a working community where every person can thrive.

Office of Equity and Civil Rights (OECR)
Houses Arcadia's Title IX office; is committed to promoting, supporting, and providing resources to sustain a living, learning, and working environment of diversity, equality, fairness, inclusion, and respect where all members of the University community are valued.

Division of Civic and Global Engagement
Within Academic Affairs, Civic and Global Engagement drives opportunities for connections between students and the world beyond campus. The work includes short-term and semester-long study away, international student support, community partnership, community-based student employment, advocacy training, and several special admissions opportunities (FYSAE, SYSAE, Civic Scholars, and Global Scholars).

Percent
Singular verb when standing alone or when a singular word follows an “of” construction: The teacher said 60 percent was a failing grade. Use the percent sign (%) in tabular, financial, and marketing material; also accepted in specialized works (advertisements, internal communications, etc.).

p.m.
Lowercase, with periods.

Postal Abbreviations
Do not use postal abbreviations in your text unless it is a postal address: He’s from New Castle, Pa. (lowercase the state abbreviation).

Professional Titles
- In general, confine capitalization to formal titles used directly before an individual’s name. Lowercase and spell out titles when they are not used with an individual’s name: “The president issued a statement.” “The pope gave his blessing.”
- Capitalize formal titles when they are used immediately before one or more names: “Governor Tom Wolf, Senator Pat Toomey.”
Residence Halls
Do not use the word dorm or dormitory to refer to the buildings on campus where students live. Always use “residence hall.” Names of residence halls:
- Kistler
- Dilworth
- Heinz
- Taylor
- Thomas
- Knight
- Oak Summit Apartments

Sports teams
Do not capitalize Arcadia University’s sports teams: men’s tennis team; women’s soccer.

Time of day
Use “noon” and “midnight,” not “12 noon,” “12 p.m.,” or “12 a.m.” Use “from” and “to” together, or only use a dash between the numbers. Lowercase a.m. and p.m., with periods.

Correct:
- 11 a.m.
- 4–5 p.m.
- 10 a.m.–noon
- from 10 a.m. to noon
- 10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Incorrect:
- 11:00 a.m.
- 4:00–5:00 p.m.
- from 4–5 p.m.

Title IX
See Office of Equity and Civil Rights.

Web address
http:// is not necessary.
Subsections:

Arcadia Abroad:
The College of Global Studies at Arcadia University, which leads the University's global centers and several study abroad programs.
