

RONALD J. EICHOLTZ (RON)

Ronald Eicholtz For two decades, Eicholtz held several finance positions with Johnson Controls and its predecessor, Tyco International. Until 2017, Eicholtz was vice president of finance at Johnson Controls, a multinational HVAC company with annual sales of $30 billion. Prior to that, he was vice president of finance for Tyco International and Tyco Security Products. Since 2017, Eicholtz has owned C&R Home Buyers, LLC, a real estate investment company.

Eicholtz, who earned a Bachelor of Science in economics at Florida State University, serves on the Stewardship Committee at St. Mary's Medical Rehabilitation Hospital. His tenure as a trustee at Arcadia began on June 1, 2019.

