

SUSAN SHENKER '69

Susan Smyth Shenker '69 attended Beaver College as a National Presbyterian Scholar and studied abroad in London for a semester on a Heinz scholarship. She was the first “young graduate Alumna Trustee” and served two terms as President of the Alumni Association. Currently she serves as the Founding Chair of the Jones Poundstone Society and President of the Beaver College Foundation.

Susan has an M.A. in higher education administration from Teachers College, Columbia University. She served as a Dean at LaGuardia Community College, CUNY and as Vice President of Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY. While raising her children, she taught full time in the graduate program in Counseling at LIU Post.

Susan currently serves as Board Secretary of the Frick Estate Lectures and is a member of the Brookville Park Foundation. She is a Past Chair of the Queens Lighthouse for the Blind and served on the Board of the Lighthouse International (formerly the New York Association for the Blind).

